

Click Here

Milligram Coffee and Kitchen - A Cozy Brunch Spot with a Relaxing Atmosphere Nestled in Paseo 17, Milligram Coffee and Kitchen is a hidden gem that perfectly blends charm, greenery, and natural light, making it an ideal weekend brunch spot. The two-story house-style block is surrounded by a lush garden, and the sun-drenched patio seating is a must for a truly chilling and cozy dining experience. Inside, the café features a coffee bar, a well-stocked liquor bar, and artistic decor, adding to its sophisticated, artsy vibe. Food & Drinks The menu offers a variety of options, including all-day breakfast and lunch selections after 11 AM, so arriving around 10:30 AM allows you to enjoy the best of both menus! Shakshouka - A comforting dish with oven-baked eggs in a rich tomato and beef stew, served with three thick-cut toast slices—perfect for dipping. A great balance of creamy and crispy textures. Milligram Breakfast - A classic plate with bacon, toast, and an oven-baked egg. Adding avocado takes it to the next level! Prosciutto & Burrata A refreshing mix of fresh pear, arugula, olive oil, burrata cheese, and Iberico ham. Served after 11 AM, this dish is a great balance of flavors—the creamy cheese pairs beautifully with the peppery arugula and salty ham. For coffee, I tried the Cortado, and the balance between coffee and milk was spot on—definitely recommended! Service & Ambiance The staff is warm and attentive, checking in about previous dishes and genuinely listening to feedback. Reservations aren't accepted for parties under six, but there are plenty of seats available, so it's worth the wait. Additional Notes Dog-friendly! The outdoor patio welcomes pets, making it a perfect place to brunch with your furry friend. Parking is limited, and you may need to find street parking in nearby residential areas. Overall, I loved my experience here and would highly recommend it for a relaxing, delicious brunch! Showing results 1-30 of 38 Newport Beach is in the heart of Orange County and is renowned for its stunning coastline, upscale lifestyle, and vibrant atmosphere that's second to none. Often known as "the OC's crown jewel" Newport Beach is where surf culture meets refined elegance. The Newport Beach coffee scene is as breathtaking as its views. It offers a unique blend of the laid-back surf culture and the sophistication for which Newport Beach is famous. Here, coffee isn't just a beverage; it's a lifestyle. From independent roasters sourcing the finest beans to baristas who add a touch of beachy charm to every cup they craft, the coffee shops in Newport Beach are a testament to the city's love for quality and creativity. The variety of coffee shops Newport Beach possesses is as diverse as the city itself. From cozy beachside cafes where you can savor your cup with a view of the Pacific to hip, urban spots that buzz with the city's energy, each offers a unique experience and flavor. Whether you're a local surf enthusiast looking to discover a new hangout spot or a visitor wanting to taste the local flavors, this is your ultimate guide to the best coffee shops in Newport Beach. When visiting California, we found the best 15 Newport Beach coffee shops to try. View this post on Instagram A post shared by Alta Coffee (@altacoffee) Breakfast is served all day at Alta Coffee, so if you're a breakfast-for-dinner sort of person, then you're in luck. Wilson Coffee Roasters roasts their coffee, offering a new 'coffee of the day' and giving customers something new to try on their morning coffee run. No matter the time of day, this coffee shop offers delicious food. Everyone can enjoy omelets, pastries, sandwiches, and sides, regardless of dietary requirements. This cozy and comfortable café is a great place to relax for everyone. With its farmhouse decor and live music events, it encompasses the very essence of a Newport coffee shop. Cappy's has been a favorite Newport Beach cafe for over 40 years. Right next to the beach, Cappy's offers weary sunbathers and swimmers an all-American experience. Customers can expect hearty breakfasts to suit every preference and a range of lunch options and seafood. Relax outdoors with your dog or grab a booth inside with your friends. This super chilled-out café is perfect for a simple yet delicious pit stop. Cappy's outdoor terrace is dog-friendly. They even have a fully licensed bar if you're after something stronger. Coffee Dose isn't hard to miss, with the bright storefronts and funky decor. Walking into the coffee shop, you'll instantly feel uplifted by the vibrant colors and funny slogans on the walls. Choose from one of their signature lattes or treat yourself to a delicious waffle. Later in the day, you can choose from one of their playfully named cocktails or share a bottle of wine with your bestie. With naughty printed coffee cups, cheeky slogans, and quirky decor, Coffee Dose isn't a brand that takes itself too seriously. Instead, they aim to combine great coffee, a pinch of humor, and a sprinkle of fun. This Newport Beach waterfront diner offers the very best of all things vintage. Take a step back in time with a visit to The Galley Café as you order a traditional burger, sundae, or milkshake from the iconic '50s and '60s eras. Customers can enjoy views of the boats on the water as they dine in a traditional booth and sip on their coffees. Strull down to The Galley for a lovely breakfast, friendly service, and indulgent treats. Haute Cakes Café is a classic neighborhood cafe that serves breakfast all day, fresh coffee, and light bites, perfect for lunchtime. Inside, you can expect contemporary decor and plenty of light flooding in. Stop by for a quick cup of coffee and a fresh pastry or stay and relax for longer on a beautiful sunny day with their outdoor seating, surrounded by calming foliage. The café doubles up as an event space popular within the local community. Herst Coffee Roasters is one of the more stylish coffee shops in the area. With several of its signature blends coming from various countries, it is the ideal place to stop for coffee lovers. Many fresh pastries and sweet treats are on offer to please every palette. Try something new with one of their Swedish-inspired pastries. Events can be hosted at this contemporary hot spot, so there is always something to keep you returning! The range of ethically sourced and sustainably grown coffees from every corner of the globe and craft roasted daily onsite. Building long-standing relationships with its coffee growers has been a priority of the brand since 1970, so you can ensure only the best quality cup of coffee at Kéan Coffee Roasters. Their coffees are rotated seasonally so that things won't stay the same. If you want something different, they have a fantastic selection of loose-leaf teas, iced teas, and other coffee shop favorites. View this post on Instagram A post shared by Kit Coffee (@kitcoffee) KIT is a busy and vibrant coffee shop that boasts craft espresso and many sweet and savory treats. The modern and contemporary interior offers their customers and community a relaxing refuge. Within the coffee shop, you can also find a small plant shop where pop-ups also often happen. You may come for a tasty cup of coffee but leave with a treat for yourself. Whoops. What started as a passion project has blossomed into the popular Newport Beach coffee shop that is seen today. Moan Goat Coffee sources its unique blends from 15 different countries around the world, offering its customers a variety of coffee, tea, and tonics. Their coffees are roasted in their Santa Ana roastery, where they dedicate their time to getting things just right. From branded merch to coffee beans, you can take any number of things home from your trip to Moan Goat Coffee. For a taste of Paris in iconic Orange County, stop by Moulin for classic French cuisine and incredible coffee. Breakfast to lunch, this little slice of Europe has many choices. There are even goods you can take home with you! One of their counters sells a range of artisan bread, pastries, cheese, and characterie options. These fresh items are prepared daily, so you know you're getting exceptional French food. Newport Coffee Company roasts the coffee in small batches by their local micro-roaster. Hand-crafted espresso, daily drip coffees, and their own brand of signature whole-bean coffee are on offer, ensuring that their customers receive only the best quality coffee. Newport Coffee Company offers a range of healthy and indulgent options, from gelato to Acai bowls. Whether you're looking for a healthy breakfast or an afternoon snack, there is something to tempt everyone to this idyllic café on the Balboa Peninsula. Another French-inspired café is Pandor, owned by a husband and wife team who wanted to bring the wonders of an authentic French boulangerie to the shores of Newport Beach. This dream has been fulfilled; using traditional French artisan baking processes, they make fresh produce daily, which always attracts a crowd. Whether you've stopped for breakfast or have decided to come and get a fresh loaf of bread, you won't be disappointed with the choices at Pandor. Everyone knows the French know how to make a great cup of coffee, which can also be expected here. Pandor even has a few classic offerings that will tingle the senses. Rose Bakery Café is a small and straightforward establishment that offers customers a great meal at a fair price. A huge range of beverages is available from the café, including more modern options such as a Chai latte. Enjoy one of their famous donuts or breakfast burritos while lazing around on the outdoor patio. Perhaps you're just there to pick up something from their extensive deli counter. Whatever the occasion, you can always expect good quality food from Rose Bakery. Donuts and coffee go hand in hand, they are a combination as old as time itself. Their donuts are made fresh in-store every hour, only using the best possible ingredients. These award-winning donuts have been featured on countless "Best of" lists and TV shows. Sidecars' mission is to spread good food and coffee into their local communities through their SideCares program. This program gives back to the local community by giving leftover bread and drinks to shelters and collaborating with charities that help with various causes. Side Street Café features a traditional American storefront with striped canopies and plenty of outdoor seating. Inside, you will find many knick-knacks and trinkets that make the space interesting and unique. Serving breakfast treats such as omelets, eggs, and French toast, this is an ideal place to stop with friends or family. It is a family-friendly café with a cozy vibe and is reasonably priced. What did you think of the coffee shops you tried in Newport Beach? Hopefully, you will find time to check out one of these fantastic coffee shops to ensure you get Newport Beach's best coffee. Remember, the next time you get your phone out to search for the best coffee near me in Newport Beach, return to this page instead and try out another of our recommendations. Check out the best coffee shops in California in the other California cities we cover. Other California Cities: Sacramento coffee shops and Oakland coffee shops. Given its charming beach town feel, it should come as no surprise that Newport Beach also boasts a delightful assortment of cafes. From grab-and-go bakeries to sit-and-stay coffee bars, the roster of places to conquer your quest for a quality cup of joe are endless. So before you turn to the nearest Starbucks drive-thru for a basic mocha frap, check out this list of our 16 favorite locally-owned cafes and coffee shops in Newport Beach. @visitnewportbeach Need to stay caffeinated this 3 day weekend? Head to one of these coffee shops in Newport Beach! #NewportBeach #visitnewportbeach #newportbeachcalifornia #coffeeshops #coffee

🌱 I Think I Like When It Rains - WILLIS Huskins Coffee Located in the quaint Balboa Island community lies Huskins Coffee—a community coffeehouse with quality, small-batch brews. This charming family-owned and operated coffee joint will make you feel right at home, and their Hometown Maple Latte is not to be missed. As the owners are originally from Canada, you can tell that Huskins doesn't mess around with maple! If boldly flavored coffee is your forte, a trip to Huskins Coffee is well worth it. Juliette's Café & Coffee Culture The new kid on the block, Juliette's Café & Coffee Culture, is a roastery with a light-filled interior and menu of breakfast and lunch favorites and classic coffee drinks. With an abundance of seating, this is the perfect coffee shop to get some work done or meet up with friends. Come hungry? Try the prosciutto tartine, frittata or fried tofu bowl. And don't leave without trying one of their seasonal fall drinks like the apple spice latte or ginger beer tonic. Stereoscope Coffee Co. Typically filled with remote workers, Stereoscope Coffee Co.'s energetic buzz of young entrepreneurs cultivates a great working environment. This award-winning cafe offers a fresh twist on coffee with cutting-edge combinations, like the Madagascar vanilla latte and ganache mocha. The ceiling art in the shop contrasts with the minimalist interior and will make you feel like you're in a museum. If you feel like taking a walk after, head to Bayview Trail for a leisurely stroll around the Back Bay. Freelance Coffee Project The new kid on the block, Freelance Coffee Project, is a roastery and tasting room dedicated to pouring single-origin coffees. Spanning an impressive 3,500 square feet, the space was expertly designed by the original founders of Long Beach-based Common Room Roasters. The atmosphere is modern and hip, offering the perfect backdrop to enjoy a cup of coffee with friends or colleagues. Whether you're a coffee aficionado or just looking for a cozy spot to relax and recharge, Freelance Coffee Project is well worth a visit. Pro tip: If you're not a coffee drinker, try their turmeric latte for a wellness boost! Rendez Vous French Bakery & Cafe Nothing beats a sit-down brunch on a Sunday morning. Rendez Vous French Bakery & Cafe in Corona del Mar is a lovely streetside spot for an authentic French meal! This quaint cafe serves up some of the freshest crêpes, pastries, artisanal breads and croissants—all made fresh daily. Satisfy your sweet tooth with a scratch-made cinnamon, cream or chocolate beignet, or stop in for a savory Ratatouille and goat cheese omelette. Wild Strawberry Cafe Tucked in the heart of Fashion Island's Design Plaza sits Wild Strawberry Cafe—a charming rustic spot filled with antique decor and the sweet smell of freshly baked goods. With everything from breakfast and brunch items like bagels, omelettes and crêpes to lunch specials like sandwiches and hearty salads, you're sure to leave satisfied. Herst Coffee Roasters Kickstart your morning with a trip to the oh-so-trendy Herst Coffee Roasters on Via Lido. This serene and stylish spot offers craft coffee beverages and gourmet pastries with ample outdoor seating to sip and savor. Menu favorites include the Macchiato, Spanish latte and creamy Cortado crafted with a double shot of espresso and perfectly steamed whole milk. Be sure to pair your beverage with a decadent pastry like a slice of their freshly baked banana bread! Daydream Surf Shop Prefer your coffee with a side of community? This hyper-local coffee shop is a hip haven for Newport locals looking to stay awhile. Daydream not only features a curated menu of craft espresso drinks, but it also doubles as a surf shop! Enter in, and you'll find a collection of surfboards, home goods and beachy apparel that'll leave you starry-eyed. The coffee/surf shop also features a surf club with a rack of 24 rotating experimental designs. Vacancy Coffee This popular PCH pit stop is the ideal place to conquer your quest for a quality caffeine fix. Relish the Aussie influence of this charming shop as you make the difficult decision of what to order. Let it be known: this menu is not so typical. Vacancy is famous for its eccentric menu featuring sippers like lavender latte, creamy matchas and "Gothic" mochas infused with activated charcoal. Haute Cakes Cafe While their avocado toast may be a total winner, this little bakery and coffee bar is anything but basic. Since 1990, Haute Cakes Cafe has brewed up the best of the best when it comes to craft coffee. So whatever you choose to sip on, whether it be a Dirty Chai or cold brew on tap, you'll dig the local charm of this neighborhood gem. But let's be clear on something: Haute Cakes does more than just drinks; the cafe also serves everything from baked goods and breakfast dishes to lunch and grab-and-go market items. Balboa Lily's Located in the cozy community of Balboa Village lies Balboa Lily's—a community coffeehouse with quality brews and farm-to-table fare. Sip on one of their signature honey lavender lattes or an almond coconut mocha, and feast on breakfast favorites like the Housemade Waffle Platter, Nick's House Sandwich or yogurt parfait. Be sure to bring Fido because Balboa Lily's is dog-friendly! View this post on Instagram A post shared by Balboa Lily's (@balboalilys) Alta Coffee Company Give your morning the jumpstart it needs with a trip to Alta Coffee! Known to have some of the freshest coffee in town, Alta's extensive selection of a.m. beverages and goodies will surely fuel your day. Stop by their quaint Cannery Village location for a croissant, cinnamon roll or quiche and pair it with a classic Flat White or decadent Toffee Latte. And before you leave, be sure to check out the work of local artists, musicians and poets who showcase their work at this charming cafe. View this post on Instagram A post shared by Alta Coffee (@altacoffee) C'est Si Bon Bakery Dark roasts and Euro-style pastries are just two of the things this fast-casual spot does well. But let it be known: there is much more to love. Stop by in the early morning, and expect to see surfers catching a cup of joe on their way to the beach. In the afternoons, you'll find a more leisurely lunch crowd there for the hearty sandwiches and assortment of takeout deli items like imported French cheeses, pâtés and wines by the bottle. Rose Bakery Cafe Cure your sweet tooth cravings with a treat from Corona del Mar's Rose Bakery Cafe. Serving a tasty breakfast and lunch, this local pit stop is the perfect place for a log bago, breakfast burrito, grilled sandwich or wrap. But if you really want to treat yourself, snag one of their glazed donuts and a drip coffee to go. Your diet starts tomorrow! Reborn Coffee With a dedication to serving clean coffee using a germinated green bean conditioning and roasting process, it's no wonder Reborn is a sensation within the local Corona del Mar community. Stop in and order a refreshing cold brew or iced berry latte before heading to the beach. At Reborn, you can totally taste the difference! And once you're hooked, you'll want to sign up for their coffee subscription program and get those fresh beans delivered directly to your door. Zinc Cafe & Market Sophisticated in style yet totally approachable, Zinc is an eatery and retail space all in one! Pop in for breakfast, lunch or dessert and sip on a selection of specialty coffees and wines. Then, once you're done savoring, browse through the adjacent market and discover a variety of goods—from cookbooks and pantry staples to kitchen accessories and wellness products. You'll quickly find that Zinc is much more than just another restaurant. Written By: Kaylin Waizinger Skip to main contentCurrent eater city: Los AngelesCaffeinate well with properly made lattes, cappuccinos, and coffeeOct 5, 2022, 5:28 PM UTCOrange County's coffee shops are tucked into the most unassuming corners of suburbia — including industrial parks, luxury apartment complexes, strip malls, and outdoor plazas. Despite the sometimes-veiled storefronts, the experts who occupy these java shops beckon coffee lovers with an array of remarkable caffeinated experiences. Each of these spots can be pursued with the assistance of this map — and they're well worth the effort. To discover the essential places to eat in Orange County, head over here.Caffeinate well with properly made lattes, cappuccinos, and coffeeOct 5, 2022, 5:28 PM UTCOrange County's coffee shops are tucked into the most unassuming corners of suburbia — including industrial parks, luxury apartment complexes, strip malls, and outdoor plazas. Despite the sometimes-veiled storefronts, the experts who occupy these java shops beckon coffee lovers with an array of remarkable caffeinated experiences. Each of these spots can be pursued with the assistance of this map — and they're well worth the effort. To discover the essential places to eat in Orange County, head over here.12921 Main St, Garden Grove, CA 92840, USAVisit WebsiteThis sunny spot is a true daydream and one-stop shop for beans, boards, and denim alike. While coffee memberships are common, Daydream offers its members access to a rotating quiver of 50 surfboards. It's the ideal spot to pick up both a rose cardamom latte, as well as an ethically sourced, upcycled piece of fashion.1588 Monrovia Ave, Newport Beach, CA 92663, USA(949) 612-7175Visit WebsiteThe MoonGoat mission statement is "People Product Place," and while the product is fantastic, the priority is definitely people here. The aesthetic is friendly but not pristine and remains ever-adapting to the needs of the patrons and employees. The coffee shop supports students and creatives, as well as a culture of sobriety. And MoonGoat strives for greater sustainability through its coffee growers and distribution practices. For example, the coffee in a can is not only recyclable but refillable.1905 Picoctia Ave, Costa Mesa, CA 92627, USA(949) 922-0216Visit WebsiteAn offspring of the Diedrich coffee family, Kéan is one of the few cafes in the area that roasts single-origin, globally sourced, green beans on-site. The roasting itself is done by a renowned roaster and copper, while the bar is overseen by an award-winning barista. Coffee connoisseurs can anticipate an excellent cup of joe, be it a cappuccino, an espresso with seltzer back, or a nitrogen cold brew.Kit allows coffee lovers a more creative way to get their daily caffeine intake through several specialty drinks. A strawberry Alarm Clock is a sweet start to the day, channeling the bliss of a strawberry milkshake while containing two shots of espresso and fresh strawberry puree. For an additional dopamine hit, Kit sells plants alongside its beverages.1617 Westcliff Dr #103, Newport Beach, CA 92660, USAVisit WebsiteThe Hopper & Burr brick-and-mortar is relatively unmarked, as it resides within Orange County's first skyscraper. Within that historic building is a coffee powerhouse, operated by four brilliant baristas who really love espresso and all that it's capable of. For a sample of what Hopper & Burr can do, the Litmus Tasting Flight is ideal, while the Campfire Cappuccino offers a multi-sensory experience. Come for the coffee but stay for the sustainably produced food items, like the ricotta toast, which is topped with vegan ricotta made using the remnants of house-made almond milk.202 W 4th St, Santa Ana, CA 92701, USAThe ceiling of Stereoscope is adorned with a stunning Renaissance-style painting, although it requires 3D glasses to discern it. It's a colorful contrast to the stark white, multi-textured backdrop of the walls, floor, and equipment. Stereoscope also has a NASA-designed pour-over system that factors human error into its consistency, while minimizing wait times. The combination of all of the above has garnered this coffee shop a reputation for its awe-inspiring design. The bedrock of Contra is a mix of creativity and science, as designed by two Cal Poly college friends, Julie Nguyen and Paul Del Mondo. Nguyen is a true beverage scientist who uses her education and her experience to craft "beverage formulas." Each drink is served cold, over ice, and with an oat milk base. Some come from a tap, while others are shaken. Because there's no espresso to produce, baristas spend more time with visitors than with the beverage machine. And those who camp out in the cafe aren't always tied to a laptop, but bring paints, paper, games, books, and other creative endeavors.115 N Orange St, Orange, CA 92866, USA(714) 696-8793This coffee house was designed to rekindle a childhood love of dessert through an extensive coffee and pastry menu. Regardless of which season it is, the cafe offers an array of designated seasonal treats, a multitude of chai renditions, and a heavenly array of European pastries.434 N Tustin St, Orange, CA 92867, USA(657) 236-4330Visit WebsiteAlthough the location itself is complicated to find, the brand is easily recognizable by its cheeky slogans and plethora of pink. Plus, the spot is a popular watering hole for influencers, which means that even the dogs are dressed and ready for their close-ups. Dose was opened by a husband-and-wife duo who wanted to take their coffee addiction to the next level by serving it with a side of humor, which they do in every way possible — including calling the baristas "vibe dealers."7.5 Corporate Park, Irvine, CA 92606, USA(949) 994-1292Visit WebsiteA dreamy and expansive space, with high ceilings, pop art, and warm lighting, Wall Writers is an easy spot to linger in for hours, which is exactly how it was designed and why there's an assortment of seating options. As a bonus, the drinks, such as the ube matcha, are just as appealing as the ambiance.7755 Irvine Center Dr, Irvine, CA 92618, USA(949) 246-9486Visit WebsiteDespite the walls and the logo, an American-style tattoo is not a prerequisite for entrance to this charming coffee shop; instead, all are welcome and greeted with resounding warmth from the staff. This is the type of place where employees know everyone's name and all of the beverages are tasty, especially the lavender honey latte.21 Vantis Dr, Aliso Viejo, CA 92656, USA(949) 215-3628Visit WebsiteMaison Café brims with sincerity, from the homemade cinnamon-doused cashew milk to the servers themselves. The spot is a full-service breakfast and lunch eatery owned by a powerhouse of a woman who's not only a single mom, but an entrepreneur, restaurateur, and chef. And for every cup of joe sold, the dollars spent help Wild Goose Roasters accomplish its mission of supporting California food banks.34320 CA-1 H, Dana Point, CA 92629, USA(949) 218-8431Visit WebsiteLocated in a historic house on a picturesque street that feels utterly removed, this hidden gem is worth the venture. While the coffee menu is delicious and the pastries are baked in-house, it's the good-heartedness of the owner that elevates this cafe to something truly unusual. Hidden House is owned by a local Marine, and the San Juan location has incidentally been dedicated to town veterans, as noted by the cafe's Wall of Honor. There's also local lore about the place bringing luck in love after multiple people, including the owner, fell in love on the front porch.Mayfield is technically a Levantine-leaning restaurant and market, but its coffee program is fine-tuned and exceptional, grander than some cafes even. Neither a server nor a bartender would dare make a coffee here without months of training first. Mayfield's owner, George Barker, is partial to the Fancy Man cappuccino (made with bourbon barrel-aged maple syrup and cinnamon, and topped with Maldon smoked sea salt) paired with sticky toffee pudding. Or for a nightcap, the Italian Job includes espresso, house-made soda water, and Italian Amaro.As a rule, employees at ZebraHouse are hired based on their personalities and not on their skillsets. This results in a corresponding and palpable air of confident coolness. Try the breakfast sandwiches and the blended coffees, or discover the permanent "hidden" menu — all of which are easily attained via drive-thru or walk-up service. Dandelion Conscious Café and Catering was born from the idea that quick & casual can also be artfully-created and served. We take pride in our all-natural and responsibly-sourced ingredients and our menu of housemade specialties like fresh-baked muffins & croissants, hearty breakfasts, fresh salads and made-to-order sandwiches. We also offer organic loose leaf tea and Italian coffee & espresso. Everything we do is with one thought in mind: to scatter kindness into the world, one plate at a time.